

LIVE

LIKE

TOMORROW

HOST CITY FESTIVAL
C40 WORLD MAYORS
SUMMIT 2019

FROM CLIMATE SINNERS TO CO2 DARLINGS

Buildings, food, transportation, clothes and digital lifestyle – modern life is affecting our climate.

In the debate stakeholders from construction, healthcare, energy, ICT, lifestyle, transportation and other industries will confess their climate mess and show how innovative solutions ensure how we can live like tomorrow – now.

Part of the debate

Copenhagen Airport, Aarhus University, NCC, Henning Larsen Architects, EGE GROUP, The Danish Construction Association, Randers Regional Hospital, Saint-Gobain, Ørsted, NOKIA, Aker Solutions / Global Compact, BrainsBusiness and The City of Copenhagen.

Moderator: Martin Breum, Journalist, Writer and Moderator

After the debate, participants are invited to join C40's Social Event "Party Like Tomorrow" – also hosted in the BLOX building in Copenhagen.

Kind regards,
Cluster Excellence Denmark

Where and when?

DAC Salen, BLOX
October 10 2019, 16:45 – 19:30
Bryghuspladsen 8, Copenhagen
Participation is free of charge but requires registration:
welfaretech.nemtilmeld.dk/198/
No-show fee: 500 DKK.

& BrainsBusiness, InnoBYG,
Lifestyle & Design Cluster, CLEAN,
RoboCluster, Welfare Tech,
MDC – Maritime Development Center and Energy Innovation Cluster

FINAL PROGRAM

16:30 Arrive, Register and Network

17:00 Welcome by Moderator Martin Breum

Opening Speech by Sten Arendt Stoltze, VP, Head of Engineering, Ørsted Offshore Wind

1st Round: Comfortable Living vs. Climate Change

Our western lifestyle is constantly getting better. We still want to travel to far away destinations and use energy to support our comfortable lifestyle. At the same time, we want to stop climate change, but can we continue to upgrade our comfortable lifestyle without killing our planet?

Panel:

- Copenhagen Airport – Thomas Woldbye, CEO
- Henning Larsen Architects – Signe Kongebro, Partner
- Saint-Gobain – Emmanuel Normant, Vice President, Sustainable Development,
- EGE Group – Dorthe Aaboe Kallestrup, CSR Manager

2nd Round: New Tech vs. Climate Change

Bigger, better, faster, more! We want smarter phones, smarter materials, smart homes, cooler outfits and better technology. But how does that go hand in hand with stopping Climate Change? Is working smarter e.g. using automation and digitalization part of the solution?

Panel:

- Nokia, Jane Rygaard, Head of Marketing, Mobile Networks
- NCC, Martin Manthorpe, Director for Strategy, Business Development & Public Affairs
- Mette Harbo, Head of Digitalisation, City of Copenhagen

3rd Round: The Secret Climate Sinners

We all know that flying and eating ox meat is bad for the climate. But there are also a numerous secret climate sinners, that we rarely hear about. So do we focus on the right issues when we try to change our lifestyle?

Panel:

Randers Region Hospital, Jonas Dahl, Director, Maritime Expert, Henrik O. Madsen, Gorm Brun Andresen, lector at the centre iCLIMATE at Aarhus Universitet and Claus Falk, Chairmann BrainsBusiness

Last Round: Creating more CO2 Darlings

Christian Gravesen, Director Welfare Tech, Michael H. Nielsen, Chair Innobyg, Betina Simonsen, Director, Lifestyle & Design Cluster and Sten Arendt Stoltze, Board Member

19:00: Wrap Up and Continue the Networking at “Party Like Tomorrow”